HONGKONG, MONDAY, JULY 15, 1878. A FEW days ago we endeavoured to afford our readers an idea of the decisions arrived at by the Congress in regard to Asiatic Turkey, as indicated in the telegrams received since the commencement of the sittings of that great diplomatic body. The conclusion of the reading of the San Stephano Treaty being announced in the telegrams we publish to-day, this will be a fitting opportunity for reviewing the work of the Congress in regard to European Turkey, so far, at least, as it has been indicated in the brief telegraphic despatches of Reuter. It may surprise many to learn that the Congress has been sitting pretty regularly from its first meeting on the 17th June until the present time. Reuter announced on the 27th June: "The European Congress is finished," and, although something was subsequently said about the Congress rising in three weeks, yet the statement in question was never directly contradicted, and the impression has prevailed that the real work of the diplomatists ceased nearly three weeks ago, and that the results of their labours are being gradually made public. The telegram should have read. "Congress has finished with Bulgaria." Which is the form in which it appears in the Indian papers. We have been made acquainted with the decisions of the Congress as they have transpired, and, if we are not mistaken, the intelligence has yet to be received of the conclusion of the sittings. Dealing first with Bulgaria, it will be recollected that the agreement arrived at between the Marquis of Salisbury and Count Schouvaloff in regard to the Bulgarians was stated unofficially to be as follows :--

Bulgaria to be divided into two autonomous provinces one the Northern under a Prince, and the other the Southern under a Christian Governor. The frontier of the Southern Province to be removed from the Agean littoral, whilst the Western frontier will be rectified in order to exclude non-Bugarians. THE TOTAL PROOPS WITH SANCITORS POSSIBLE Bulgaria, retaining the right of autry to resist insurrection and invesion. England reserves the demand of a European share in the organisation of the two Bulgarias, of the Russian occupation of Bulgaria, and the navigation of the Danube. It has been announced that the Government had commenced the prosecution Per Pernambuso, at 4.30 p.m., on Wed- of a Foreign Office clerk for divulging the terms of this agreement. These differ very materially from the provisions of the Treaty of San Stephane, as a comparison will show. The first announcement of importance regarding Bulgaria, after the meeting of the Congress, was that at an interview on the 21st June, between the English, Austrian and Russian plenipotentiaries, the following points will be despatched with the Madis for Varne, the Northern frontier of Montenagro Europe, do, on SATURDAY, the and the boundaries of Gerrie to be restrictad and to receive compensation in the conditions, because they differ in essential particulars from those which Reuter's Agency here represented as having been advanced on the occasion, and because their principle, at least, appears to have been ultimately adopted. At the meeting of the Congress on the 22nd the Earl of Beaconsfield "made the continuance of the Congress conditional upon the accept-somewhat different to the statement we ance of the arrangement agreed to by erroneously printed on Saturday. the plenipotentiaries of England, Russia and Austria on the previous day." The Russian plenipotentiaries appealed to the Czar in the matter. The statement that Roumelia would include Sophia, subsequently altered to "Bulgaria will include Sophia." It now remains to be seem whether the Czar, to whom we are told the Russian plenipotentiaries had nonneed for to-night. The farewell perappealed, accepted the agreement arrived formance will be given on Wednesday next. at by the diplomatists of the three countries at their interview on the 21st THE British 8-m. schooner Rossoulireports June. A telegram on the 23rd says: had fine weather throughout, with light "The Czar has replied to the appeal winds and strong Northerly currents. from the Russian plenipotentiaries that he Drifted for three days amongst the Babuwill adhere to the arrangement on condition that administrative autonomy is yan Islands, 60 miles per day. The proceedings of the Congress on the Monday are THE following is the account of the average thus telegraphed: "The Congress sat from one till four this afternoon and agreed to the principle of the Bulgarian settlement as agreed to by the plenipotentiaries of England, Austria and Russia, subject to the ratification of the Congress. The details will be settled at Tuesday's sitting. Nine months is the time fixed for the Russians to evacuate Bulgaria and Roumelia," Unfortunately it does not appear very clear whether the important provision that the Turks should fortify the passes of the Balkans and garrison them has ultimately been adopted, but we are inclined to think it THE Band and Pipers 74th Highlanders

The final settlement of matters in regard to Bulgaria seems to be this. North of the Balkans, Bulgaria will be a selfgoverned province, having a prince at its of the Sultan. South of the Balkans, Bulgaria will be governed by a Christian Governor and will also be subject to the Her boundaries will not extend to the Mediterranean as provided for in the Treaty of San Stephano. All the fortresses North of the Balkans will be rased, but the Turks will probably be permitted to occupy and fortify the Balkan passes. While in the event of Turkish troops permanently occupying the Balkan passes, they will necessarily require lines of communication through some parts of Southern Bulgaria, yet it The Alta California of June 3 has the seems that no Turkish troops are to be following :permitted to occupy any of the Bulgarian towns, either North or South of the this afternoon the following amounts of Balkans. The Russian occupation of Freasure had been cleared for China per the territory South of the Danube is to to-morrow's steamer ! cease in nine months' time.

We have only time to summarise the final arrangements in regard to the other parks of European Turkey. The Dardanelles and Bosphorus remain in statu quo. Roumania gains her independence, but has to give up Bessarabia ha to Russia in exchange for the Debrudscha. Bosnia and Herzegovina will probably be permanently absorbed by Austria, but the process seems to have been postponed to August. Montenegro becomes independent, and receives very considerable slices of territory. including the port of Antivari. Servia is also to be independent, and receives a large tract of country to the south-east, although it seems probable she will have to surrender some territory to Bulgaria on the north. Greece also receives an extension of her frontiers. Finally Turkey will have to pay about £40,000,000 the shops in the Chinese Pavilion at the indemnity.

The Chipa Commission to the Paris Exhibition have added the following gentlemen to serve on the international jury of awards in the interest of the country they represent :- M. The Government is despatching supplies to Singapore and Hongkong. ANOTHER MURDER.

Another murder was committed in this Joiony yesterday about noon. The vistion on this occasion, as was the case in most of the other numerous murders here of late, is a woman. She was an inmate of a brothel at 48 Hollywood Road, and it appears that the man who is now under arrest for causing her death was a frequent visitor at the house. The facts are at fat as have been appointed valuators for the can learn at present simply these. The deceased (Chun Ayow) was, as we have said, an inmate of a brothel and the accused, Tam Atal, a hawket, had formed an intittate acquaintants with her, having known her before the entered the brothel some seven months ago: has been visiting her frequently of late, and yesterday, shortly before moon, a quarrel arose between them shout some pawntickets. The exact matters of the disarrel in not yet known, but both the deseased and accused were more or less angry with each to penal servitude for life, by His other about the matter in dispute About past 11 o'clock they were seen sitting th a bed in the hall on the second floor of the house, and shout a quarter of all hour later ories of "save life were beard. street and raised an alarm. The husband of one of the servants, a bricklayer named Yan Afat, said he saw the deceased lying on the floor near the stairs, while the accused was leaning over and stabbing her. The bricklayer endeayoured to close the front door to prevent the murderer's escape but the murderer stabbed him in the eye and escaped into the street, pursued by the bricklayer, and was ultimately arrested by Chinese Constable No. 304. There appears to be little doubt that the prisoner is the man who stabbed the poor woman, and the degree of his criminality is only a question of avidence. Of evidence as to his having been seen stabling her, there is plenty, but evidence as to what really led to the quarrel there appears at present to be none. An inquest was opened to-day on the body, Messrs H.Z. Just, F. Panigza, and P. H. Speidel comprising the Jury, when the above facts were elicited. The evidence of Dr von Horck as to the cause of death, the landledy of the house, Yau Afat, a bricklayer and Leang Asze, a female servant in the house, was taken, and the inquest was then adjourned until 4 p.m. on Thursday at the Magistracy, to enable the police to obtain evidence as to the cause of the quarrel.

LOSS OF TWO ENGLISH SHIPS. (Diario de Manila, July 12.)

Shipwrecks.-The Comercio, in its issue of yesterday, under this heading, says:-"In the schooner Don Juan (from Bulan, Albay), there arrived the chief mate and one sallor, wounded, of a British vessel recently lost. The following are the particulars which could be gathered: -The stranded ship is the Lord of the Isles, of 657 tons register, on a voyage to Manila, with 1000 tons Australian coal. She was lost on the let of the present month between the hours of 12 (midnight) and 1 a.m., off the North of San Andre's Island, one of the Islands of Natanjos, near the Straits (?) The Chief Officer and a wounded sailor came from Bulan, to which place they proceeded from the scene of the wreck, leaving behind the Captain and 15 of the crew to save what was possible. When the vessel stranded, there was no wind at the time, but the strong current was the cause of the disaster. The steamer Camiguin leaves this afternoon to take the salved crew."

There also arrived in the Butuan one of the sailors of another shipwrecked vessel. The following is from a letter dated Cebu 80th June, regarding this catastrophe -"The steamer Origna arrived this morning having on board two shipwrecked sailors of the British' barque Queen, of Liverpool, Captain Hole, of 700 tone, and manned by 21 men, which vessel was lost at about 24 hours' sailing distance from the island of Palaos, and 57 days from Singsby striking on a rock. The vessel had taken in at Singapore a general cargo, and had on board a large sum of money, as it was the intention of herowners to buy cocoanut oil in the said island. When the vessel was stranded, wind, in 15 days arrived at the coast of which had been lent to him. Fined $2. Mindanao. The native of Philippine died on the passage, and the boatswain was found exhausted when the boat was visited by some natives of Mindanao, who gave bim water and something to eat, and thus succeeded in bringing him to his senies. The Governor of Surigao gave them every necessary facilities, and sent them here in the steamer Oriana."

THE TUNG WAH HOSPITAL.

The following Report from the Chairman of the Tung Wah Hospital Committee is published in Saturday's Government Gazette:--TUNG WAH HOSPITAL, HONGKONG.

July 10, 1878. SIR, -I have the honour to report that during the year 1877, the total number of patients treated at and in this Hospital was 56,466 against 48,232 in 1876, and against 46,761 in 1875, thus showing an excess of 8,234 and 9,705 respectively over the preceding two years. Of that number, there were 1,492 in-patients as against 1,179 in 1876, and 1,095 in 1875. The sick that were admitted were generally of the poorest class of the Colony, and in many instances it was found necessary, on their discharge from the Hospital, to provide them with the means of returning to their native places. The number of persons thus provided for during the year was 116.

The number of deaths recorded last year was 624. Of this, it should be noted, there were 235 persons who were brought into the Hospital in a moribund state, and who died within a few hours of their admission.

Seventeen of the sufferers by the sid accident on board the steamer Yesso were admitted into this Hospital, of whom 10

Vaccination is practised during the cool persons who underwent the operation at the Hospital during the year under review was .063. Vaccinators were sent to the neighbouring villages and to various districts of Kwangtung Province. The result of their mission was very satisfactory, and their returns show that they had 0.641 operations. Since the establishment of this Hospital, Chinese who are found destitute and homeless by the police, and young girls that have been kidnapped or decoyed into the Colony are generally sent to the hospital by the Magistrates and the Registrar-General. In such cases, the Committee either provide netive places, or in the cass of young girlsthey find out their parents or relatives that are friendless, and they wish to marry in order to have the support of a husband they are at liberty to do to. The total such diremmstances during the year 1877

It is gratifying to note that their appeal was generously responded to, and they were soon enabled to remit altogether the sum of $68,000 for the relief of the sufferers.

On the occasion of our new year, His Excellency the Governor was pleased to pay a formal visit to this Hospital, I beg to appends summarised account of it. [This has already appeared in our columns.]

On the 14th instant, the present Committee will, according to the rules of the Hospital, retire from the Office, but assist the new Committee in the discharge of their duties by taking the places of Sub-directors. I have the honour to be, Sir,

Your most obedient Servant. LEONG ON. Chairman of the Committee. The Honourable J. M. Price, Acting Colonial Secretary.

REFUSAL OF DUTY. Richard Oram, cook and steward, and George Drinkwater, Shimmen Cowels, John Anderson, and Joseph Vickers, seamen British schooner Ocean Racer, were charged with having refused duty. The trouble arose owing to the Captain's refusing to give all the defendants money to go on liberty. The defendants said the Captain had promised them their discharge, and then refused them after they had signed their accounts of wages, and gone through all the preliminaries. The defendants were sent on board their thip again.

Richard Oram, one of the defendants in the previous case, was then charged with assaulting the Chief Officer. The summons was dismissed, as the mate said he did not feel aggrieved.

REFUSAL OF DUTY. William Sheen, seaman British barque Norman Court, was charged as above. fendant admitted the charge, assigning as his reasons, first that he had been told that means would be resorted to to compel him to work better, and secondly that he had signed articles here for a voyage to Foochow and Lordon, and the ship had not left yet. He persisted in his refusal to do any more work, and was sent to six weeks hard

SUPREME COURT. IN SUMMARY JURISDICTION. (Before His Honor James Russell, Esq. Acting Puisse Judge.) July 15, 1878.

Stetting v. Koop, $274.40 — This was a claim for wages as a carpenter on board the British barque The Frederick and the value of some tools and clothing unlawfully detained by the defendant. Mr Dennys appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr Wotton for the defendant.

The hearing in this case was resumed to-day. The plaintiff's examination by His Lordship was continued. He said he was sent to three months' imprisonment at Kobé by the Consul, who subsequently reduced the term of imprisonment to six weeks; plaintiff only served five weeks. The Consul said nothing to him about his wages. Plaintiff then mentioned in detail the articles of clothing and tools he had lost, so far as he could recollect from me-

His Lordship, on looking over the list of articles sold to plaintiff, asked if 5 shillings a pound was a proper price for tobacco. Defendant said that the tobacco cost him 75 cents per lb. at New York, and 5 shillings was not too much. Captains ran a great risk in selling tobacco to sallors, who might run away, in which case they would lose all.

that plaintiff had been ordered to cut the hours and made great progress. heels from; if this were so they would be useless and could hardly be charged for.

August Leonhardt was next called: he said he was native of Prussia, he had been 12h years at sea, and mostly in English Montenegro receives Antivari, excluding ships:—I was an able seaman on board The foreign bottoms. Russia and Roumania Frederick. We put into Bermuda in dis- will probably divide Bessarabia. His Lordship noted the objection. Witness'examination was then proceeded. with; he corroborated plaintiffs' statement, and gave his evidence in a very clear and straightforward manner, without the slightest hesitation. He said that the crew had no lime-juice for 9 months, that between Bermuda and Batavia there was not a day passed in which he did not see human blood on the decks of The Frederick. The inscription on the piece of wood, kept near the wheel " The Sailors Friend; steer straight, you beggars-M. Burke, Chairman and striker"-was in the Captain's handwriting. The men were not allowed to Man Achun, a boy 12 years of age, was keep any paper or pencis in the forecastle. sent to five days' solitary confinement and On one occasion the mate told the cook to ordered to be flogged five strokes on the throw boiling water in witness's face, and breach for attempting to steal a bag of flour. the cook dared not refuse for fear of being flogged. The cook was sent away at Kobe in the same way as the carpenter. At Andrew McCormick, 2nd mate of the Batavia witness pulled out his sheath knife as they came round. One day the mate asked Raab to tell him all he had told the Consul at Batavia. Raab could speak very Wong Asan was fined 20 shillings or 21 little English and found some difficulty to explain himself. He was struck on the head with the augur handle and fell down, when -the-second mate_jumped_upon_him all over and continued to do so until ordered to desist by the mate. Raab was bleeding Nathan Gardner, seaman British schooner very much; there was a large wound over Ocean Racer, was fined 50 cents for being the right eye, large enough to admit two fingers of a man's hand, and several holes Peter Williams, seaman British ship in his head. Raab told witness that he Hindosian, was fined 50 cents for a similar thought something was broken inside his body. He died a few days later. Or John Hunter, engineer unemployed, was Christmas day all the crew were called aft to sing songs; the mate went and dragged ing his head and said he wanted to go and bind his wounds. Witness saw the mate striking him as they dragged him forward

Witness swore to having seen the second mate purposely let go the rope which held the stage on which the carpenter was standing at Kobe, and said that the carpenter was compelled to go on the stage again in his wet clothes. He also swore positively to the carpenter being forced on shore at Kobe, and said that he oried like a child at having to leave all his wages, clothes and tools behind him.

Mr Wotton subjected the witness to a very severs cross-examination, but without shaking his evidence in the slightest degree, Two boys were then called to corroborate statement made by August Leonhardt, to the effect that he had been confined for three days on board the ship at Batavia without food, because he wished to see the Consul. The boys differed in their statements somewhat as to time, but agreed

The case was then adjourned until a past 10 o'clock on Wednesday next, the 17th
